

General Consent to Exchange Information & Authority to Act on Client's Behalf

This form is to be completed by social housing clients as follows:

- Part A: when you give consent for social housing provider to exchange personal information with a nominated third party, and/or
- Part B: when you authorise a person or organisation to act on your behalf.

For information or assistance with completing this form, contact 1800 422 322, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Please mark relevant boxes with a . If you need more writing space to answer a question, please include information on a separate page and attach it to this form.

Part A: Client Consent to exchange personal information

- To authorise a nominated third party/agency to give or receive information about you to or from a social housing provider.
- To allow a social housing provider to collect and use your personal information from a nominated third party/agency.
- To allow a social housing provider to exchange information with a nominated third party/agency.

When you sign this form you are authorising a nominated third person/agency to give or receive information about you and for information to be exchanged between a social housing provider and the nominated person. This information will be collected and recorded in your social housing provider records. Only information needed to make the best decisions to assist you in obtaining or maintaining housing and/or support will be shared.

Part B: Authority to Act on client's behalf

To arrange for another person/agency to act on your behalf when dealing with a social housing provider.

A person/agency that is named by you to act on your behalf is authorised to deal with a social housing provider on all matters that assist you in obtaining or maintaining accommodation and support, including:

- Enquiring on your behalf
- Acting and making changes on your behalf that assist you in obtaining or maintaining accommodation and support
- Receiving copies of correspondence
- Attending social housing provider appointments with you or on your behalf

A nominated person/agency that is permitted to act on your behalf can be a partner, a friend, a family member, or a professional/agency. This list is not limited and you may change this arrangement at any time. Authorising a person/agency to act on your behalf does not take away your right to contact a social housing provider if you need to do so.

General Information about Privacy

Social housing providers collect personal information about you in order to make sure you receive the assistance you may be entitled to. You have a right to have that personal information kept private. All social housing providers are bound by privacy and confidentiality laws that limit who can look at information about you and when it can be given out.
