Privacy Notice

Privacy Notice

This privacy notice applies to the Department of Communities and Justice (DCJ) which includes the following entities: the Land and Housing Corporation and the Aboriginal Housing Office. DCJ and its related entities comply with NSW privacy legislation when collecting and managing personal and health information. The information we collect from you or from an authorised third party will be held by DCJ or the entity that collects it. It will be used to deliver services and to meet our legal responsibilities. We may also use your information within DCJ as a whole to plan, coordinate and improve the way we provide services. DCJ is also legally authorised to disclose information to outside bodies in certain circumstances.

Further information about your privacy rights can be found on the Department's website:

<https://www.facs.nsw.gov.au/housing/policies/privacy-information-sharing-policy> or by calling: 02 9377 6000.

Notice: Your personal information provided on this form will be exchanged between the Department and the NSW Police Force for the purpose of assessing your eligibility for housing within the suburbs of Redfern, Waterloo, Surry Hills, and Glebe.

Client's consent to the exchange of information between DCJ and the NSW Police

I confirm that I understand the following information:

- My consent lasts for 1 year after the date that I provide consent, or when I no longer need assistance with public housing, unless there is a current legal order in place.
- I can change my mind and stop my consent at any time, unless there is a current legal order in place.
- If I feel that some of my information is sensitive or could impact on my safety, I can advise DCJ
- If I do not provide written consent I will not be offered a property in the suburbs of Redfern, Waterloo, Surry Hills, or Glebe.

Do you give your consent?
